1. What is your purpose for being on social media {pinterest, instagram, facebook, twitter, or other}? What is your end goal and reason for being on social media?
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

2. What are the objectives you feel will help you to accomplish your mission and purpose?
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

3. What boundaries do you feel you need to put in place in order for you to use social media in a self-controlled and disciplined manner?
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

4. My commitment to the Lord is…
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

Created by @AngieTolpin.com